(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
BERLIN, Feb. 18.—A mutiny of Hindu troops is reported by the Cologne Volks Zeitung as quoted by the Overseas News Agency. It is said an entire regiment mutinied, killing twelve officers, and that other Hindu troops went over to the mutineers. After a battle of two hours the mutinous troops were routed.
The news agency statement follows: "The Cologne Volks Zeitung publishes a report received from reliable sources in Cairo that strong opposition has developed among the Hindu troops to the British. A captain of the Australian troops named Brown on January 10 shot two Mohammedan servants, who had made a mistake, the paper says. Two Hindus who witnessed the incident killed the captain with a bayonet.
"The whole regiment then mutinied. A majority of the officers saved themselves by flight but twelve of them were killed.
"Other Hindu troops were sent to suppress the uprising but refused to fire on the mutineers to whom part of them went over. After two hours of fighting part of the mutineers fled into the desert. The others were killed or wounded.
"There have been other cases of mutiny."

FAREWELL ADDRESS IN THE CITY TONIGHT

By Mrs. Daniel Shephardson Will Be Delivered in First Presbyterian Church.

"On Horseback through Palestine" was given in the Baptist church last night to a crowded house. The slides shown had been made from pictures which Mrs. Shephardson took while traveling through Asia Minor, Syria and Palestine. Sunset in Galilee, the Jordan river, a street scene in Jerusalem, Olivet by midnight and the picture of Hoffman's Christ with which the lecture closed will long be remembered by those present.
The Kappa Sigma Phi boys were made happy by the splendid financial returns gained and the uplift they received from the lectures as they listened to them each evening.

WILL SPEAK IN SEVERAL STATE CITIES

Among Which is Clarksburg on Invitation of Those Who Heard Her in 1914.

A speaking tour of several important cities in West Virginia is being made by Janet Fenimore-Korngold, of Chicago, who comes to this city to speak in the court house tomorrow evening. She comes upon invitation of persons who heard her speak here in the fall of 1914.
Mrs. Korngold is a native of Indiana, where she taught school for several years. Her activity in the suffrage movement developed her ability to make public addresses, for which she has become widely known, having spoken on platforms in most of the state, as Miss Janet Fenimore. Her career as a speaker brought her into the company of another talented speaker and writer, Ralph Korngold, whose reputation is known from coast to coast in this country and also in Europe.
After the wedding bells sounded for Janet Fenimore, Mrs. Korngold could not give up her career as a speaker, but has continued on, often accompanied by Mr. Korngold, filling a double engagement.
The committee in charge of tomorrow evening's meeting states that it has tried for several months to secure the engagement of Mrs. Korngold, because of the many requests to hear her again, and it desires that every one who is interested in hearing the speaker shall bring some one who did not hear her on the previous visit here.
The subject of the lecture is "Socialism and the Housewife." The lecture will begin at 7:30 o'clock, to which invitation is extended to the public, without a charge for admission.

Mrs. William F. Alexander, of Baltimore, is a guest of Mrs. Charles B. Alexander on South Chestnut street.

EVANGELISTIC

Movement at the Colored White Rock Church Takes on Big Proportions.

The great evangelistic movement at the colored White Rock Baptist church at Union Heights is progressing, and so far there have been three conversions and four recommitments. The Rev. W. B. Crawford, pastor-evangelist, of Brownsville, Pa., is a great and powerful gospel preacher, who was for years one of the evangelists who traveled with the Baptist Valley Evangelistic Association, which owned its own tent. He spoke last night from the subject, "Christ's Coming Into a Place." Those present were going to live a life conducive to a healthy Christian growth. The theme for this evening is "Jesus and Zachariah." Those desiring to hear the sermon must go early, as the evangelist will leave tonight at 10:10 o'clock for Brownsville, Pa., to preach to his people on the Sabbath. The evangelist will return to Clarksburg Monday to continue the meeting another week.

Interest Continues in Great Revival Held in First Methodist Church

Dr. King Takes Up Work Where Evangelist Left It and is Making Great Headway.

THE CONVERTS ARE MANY

Hearers Are Impressed with Preaching of New Pastor Who Flays Sin and Evil.

Last evening in the First Methodist church, Dr. King, the new pastor, delivered a sermon which was pronounced the equal of anything which was heard during the great series of revival talks given by Dr. Morrison.

The membership is greatly pleased with Dr. King's work here and feels that before he closes the meeting there will be one of the greatest outpourings of religious blessing that has come upon the church in many years. The main auditorium was filled last night and the interest grew to the extent that practically every person present took some part in the services.

The principal theme of Dr. King's sermon was the consequences following a sinful life and the fact that one cannot hope for future happiness unless there is a remission and a turning away from our waywardness. The pastor cited numerous instances where the fact that "sin lieth at the door" brought about ruin and the utter downfall. He exhorted his hearers in ablest terms to turn from things evil and follow after those which are pure.

The meeting was proof positive that with the departure of Dr. Morrison the revival spirit did not abate. It is present in all the vital force which marked the past, and continues to become more and more pronounced. There will be a great meeting for men on Sunday afternoon, with the regular services announced as far as Tuesday night.

IMPROVEMENT OF PULLMAN SERVICE BETWEEN CLARKSBURG AND PITTSBURG

(By George W. Duddern, Secretary of the Board of Trade.)
"Eternal vigilance" is the motto of the board of trade to bring about improvement of transportation facilities, as well as other civic conditions of Clarksburg and our city's growth requires and the carrying conditions make possible. The much needed improvement of Pullman service as it affects this city particularly East and North was taken up with the Baltimore and Ohio officials about two months ago, and early in February, Messrs. G. W. Squiggins, general passenger agent, and C. W. Allen, traveling passenger agent, came to Clarksburg for a conference with the president and the secretary of the board of trade. At that time we announced the inauguration of certain changes and the provision of additional Pullman space which was felt it would provide for adequate service eastbound, the Baltimore and Ohio assuring us that if the changes made do not bring about the desired improvement of the service the question would have their further attention. As to service between here and Pittsburgh, General Passenger Agent Squiggins promised it possible to improve that, and this morning comes a telegram from headquarters that effective from this date the Clarksburg sleeper would leave Pittsburgh on No. 8, the Interstate Express at 12:12 midnight, making direct connections at Conneville instead of as heretofore at 10:35, the sleeper to be open after 10 o'clock. This is an improvement which will be decidedly appreciated by our people, as we can have the pleasure of a full evening's entertainment of any sort in Pittsburgh and then find our sleeper waiting for us when it is over. We are sure that the Baltimore and Ohio patrons will appreciate the efforts that the company is making to meet the rapidly increasing demands upon transportation facilities in this section and the increase of approximately $225,000 in the Baltimore and Ohio revenue during the last four months as compared to a corresponding period of a year ago indicates that improvements in other lines than passenger service will soon be coming our way.

Your board of trade representing the commercial backbone of this community is the proper medium through which these improvements can be secured and the medium through which transportation companies can best co-operate and it is hoped that every business interest in the community will eventually become identified by this movement. If you like the old town best tell 'em so. If you'd have her lead the rest help her grow. When there's anything to do let the fallers count on you. You'll feel bully when you do, don't you know. Join the board of trade. Do it now.

HANS SCHMIDT GOES QUIETLY TO HIS DEATH

In the Electric Chair at Sing Sing Prison for Murder of Anna Aumuller.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
OSSINGEN, N. Y., Feb. 18.—Hans Schmidt was electrocuted at Sing Sing prison today for the murder of Anna Aumuller September 2, 1913. Schmidt went quietly to the death chamber accompanied by the principal keeper and the Rev. Father Cashin, the prison chaplain. Leaving the death house he said goodbye to those who remained.

When he entered the chamber the guards attempted to direct him towards the chair, but Schmidt gently shook them off and insisted upon addressing the seventeen witnesses. The guards desisted from their efforts and with Father Cashin standing at one side and the keeper at the other, Schmidt said:

Built as it is on a steep mountain side nearly a mile above sea level.

TURKS MUCH SURPRISED

Garrison Scatters in All Directions and Men Are in Disorderly Flight Now.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
PETROGRAD, Feb. 18.—The fall of Erzerum, the most important Turkish stronghold in Asia Minor and for a long time considered impregnable, offers the unprecedented spectacle of a first class fortress built on a steep mountain side nearly a mile above sea level, yielding to bayonet attack after only thirty-six hours' bombardment.

The operations were conducted under severe weather conditions, the snow being deep and the thermometer registering at times more than thirty degrees below zero, Fahrenheit.

The Turkish armies defending Erzerum taken by surprise under the methods adopted by the Russians are now said to be in disorderly flight on the road leading to Sivas. As the garrison apparently scattered in all directions, it is assumed here that large numbers of men were taken prisoners, although official figures are still lacking.

After the taking of Niskala, it appeared that the Russian attack would be directed upon the Turkish right flank and by rapidly transferring troops, the Turks made all plans to resist the main assault from this quarter. Apparently they had little fear of the success of this attack because of the strong character of the fortifications in that direction and even less apprehensions of danger from a frontal attack.

Nevertheless after the Russians succeeded in taking by storm the first line forts on February 2, there began a persistent bombardment of the Turkish center followed by a bayonet charge, the impetuosity of which swept the defenders off their feet. The highest tribute is paid to the bravery of the Caucasian troops whose charge is considered likely to go down in history as one of the most brilliant feats of the war.

It is recognized here that the success of the assault was due almost entirely to the bayonet work of these troops since the artillery preparation was insufficient to intensify and duration, according to military experts, to reduce even a strong field position.

GAS EXPLOSION

Wrecks Town Lockup and Burns Two Men Fatally and a Prisoner Escapes.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
CARROLLTOWN, Pa., Feb. 18.—Two men were burned, one perhaps fatally, and a prisoner escaped when a gas explosion today wrecked the town lockup. The prisoner, whose name the police did not know, was the first man arrested in the village for a long time and when he took him to the jail Michael Zollner, the policeman, struck a match to light the gas stove and make him comfortable. Instantly the gas let go, blowing out one side of the building.

Zollner was so badly burned it is feared he will die, and his deputy also was hurt. The prisoner, who had been arrested for peddling on the streets, claimed to be deaf and dumb but when the explosion occurred he ran shouting from the place.

STORK

Visits Margeson Home in Arbutus Park, Leaving a Fine Baby.

Clarence E. Margeson, vice president of the Household Specialty Company, left his home in Arbutus Park Thursday evening and started for this city, where he was to attend a meeting of the stockholders of the company. He did not attend the meeting. Just before reaching the offices of the company he received a telephone message, which caused him to hastily return to his home. Upon his arrival there, he learned that the stork had visited his home in his absence, leaving a fine baby girl. Mother and babe are doing nicely, and Mr. Margeson is today handing out "ten-centers" to his friends.
